

RITSCH AUSLESE

FIRST SITE

Up until shortly after WWII the Ritsch was one of the most esteemed sites along the Mittelmosel. By the end of the 19th century it even belonged to best-rated sites along the whole Mosel. For decades the potential of this site has been forgotten. With my wines from this extraordinary site I would like to remind wine lovers of this first-class site.

A unique feature of this wine is its playful elegance as well as its complex aroma structure reaching from lychee aromas to passion fruit and citrus aroma. Stuart Pigott compared our Ritsch to Ingrid Bergmann's role in "Casablanca".
